

The Starved Rock Area

Discover the greater Starved Rock Area – full of nature, history and shops galore! This region has all you need for a perfect getaway, whether staying at one of the many hotels, a quaint bed and breakfast or camping out under the stars – visitors will have plenty to do in the Starved Rock Area.

Hike the trails of the three state parks located in the region, view flowing waterfalls, gentle wildlife and scenic paths in Starved Rock, Matthiessen, or Buffalo Rock State Parks. Go horseback riding in one of the area stables or hop in a canoe and row across the calm waters of the Vermillion. For a more relaxing time cruise the Illinois and Fox Rivers aboard a paddlewheel or riverboat and view the picturesque sandstone banks along the rivers. The Starved Rock area is home to many historic establishments, including a 100+ year old mansion with original wallpaper and fixtures or museums housed in these historic Canal buildings. Don't forget to wander through the delightful shopping districts of the area. Whether your interests be home décor, antiques, or Harley Davidsons®, the Starved Rock Area offers something for everyone. Dine at one of the many unique restaurants of the region – from fine dining to home-made foods. With all this to offer, the Starved Rock Area is truly a joy with its shops, restaurants, rich history and natural beauty!
